Privacy Policy

Bell Home Books • Effective November 28, 2026

This policy explains what information Bell Home Books collects when you buy from us and how we use it. The short version: we collect only what we need to deliver your guide and help you, and we never sell your information.

What we collect

- your name and email address, which you give at checkout
- your order details: what you bought, when, and the price
- any messages you send us

Your payment details are collected and handled by Whop, the company that runs our checkout. We don't see or store your full card number.

Whop and our web pages may use cookies and similar basic tools to make checkout work and to count visits.

How we use it

- to deliver your purchase and download link
- to answer your questions and handle refunds
- to keep the records we need for taxes and accounting
- to prevent fraud
- only if you've agreed: to send occasional emails about new guides. Every email has a one-click unsubscribe link.

Who we share it with

We never sell or rent your personal information. We share it only with:

- Whop, which processes payments and delivers your files (see Whop's privacy policy on whop.com)
- services that help us run the business, such as email, and only as much as they need
- the authorities, if the law requires it

How long we keep it

We keep your information only as long as we need it for your purchase, support and tax records (tax records are usually kept for several years). After that, we delete it.

Your choices

- ask what information we have about you
- ask us to correct or delete it (we may need to keep order records the law requires)
- unsubscribe from our emails at any time

Just email help@bellhomebooks.com. Some states, such as California, give residents extra privacy rights. We honor them; just ask.

Children

Our guides are made for adults. We don't knowingly collect information from children under 13.

Keeping it safe

We use trusted providers and limit who can see your information. No system is perfect, but we take reasonable care to protect it.

Changes to this policy

If we change this policy, we'll update the date at the top.
