Terms of Service

Bell Home Books • Effective November 28, 2026

These terms apply when you buy or use any guide, ebook, checklist or printable from Bell Home Books ("we" or "us"). By buying, you agree to them. We've kept them short and in plain language.

1. What you're buying

Our products are digital: PDF guides, ebooks and printables. Nothing is shipped. After you pay, you get your download by email and in your account on Whop, the company that runs our checkout.

2. Payment

Payments are handled by Whop (whop.com). We never see or store your full card number. Prices are in US dollars, and sales tax may be added at checkout where the law requires it. Your checkout is also covered by Whop's own terms.

3. Your personal-use license

When you buy a guide, you may:

- read it on any of your own devices
- print copies for yourself and your household

You may not:

- resell, share, upload or give away the file or copies of it
- post its content online or present it as your own

All guides, text and designs belong to Bell Home Books and are protected by copyright.

4. General information, not professional advice

Our guides share general tips for everyday life at home. They are not medical, legal, financial, electrical or other professional advice. Every home and every person is different. Before making changes that affect your health, safety or home (for example wiring, heating, ladders or medicines), check with a qualified professional, and always follow product instructions and safety labels.

Prices, stores and products we mention can change at any time, so please check them yourself before buying.

5. No guarantees, and limits on our responsibility

We work hard to make our guides accurate and helpful, but they are provided "as is", without warranties of any kind. As far as the law allows, Bell Home Books is not responsible for any injury, loss or damage that comes from using the information in our guides. Our total responsibility for any claim is limited to the amount you paid for the product.

6. Refunds

Every purchase comes with an 18-day money-back guarantee. See our Refund Policy for details.

7. Other companies we mention

Our guides may mention stores, products or websites run by others. We don't control them and aren't responsible for them. If we ever earn a commission from a link, we'll say so clearly.

8. Changes to these terms

We may update these terms from time to time. The date at the top shows the latest version. The terms in place when you bought apply to that purchase.

9. Governing law

These terms are governed by the laws of the State of New York, USA.
